

Daycare Modular Building

[CHALLENGE]

A City School District was in need of a daycare modular building. The prefabricated building had to be of sound prefabricated construction for the children and economical for the budget.

[SOLUTION]

Modular Genius built this customer a 4,320 square foot modular building using durable materials such as cement siding and rubber roofing with energy conscious windows. The customer and the children are happy with their new home away from home.

